Derbyshire Village Games set to begin

The Derbyshire Village Games project will begin on July 5, with the induction of seven new sports development staff for the county.

The Village Games Co-ordinators and Coach and Volunteer Development Officer have a three year project to deliver, which will change the face of village sport.

In the build up to, and beyond the 2012 Games, it is hoped that people of all ages across rural Derbyshire will get back into sport and physical activity, competition, coaching and volunteering.

There will be festivals, new clubs and activities and a great buzz around the Village Games. For more information, contact hayley@communitysportstrust.co.uk or see www.communitysportstrust.co.uk/villagegames

Nominate your sporting hero for the Derbyshire Sports Awards

Entries for the 2010 Derbyshire Sports Awards are now being accepted.

Each local authority in Derbyshire will recognise local sporting heroes later this year, and winners will then go forward to be considered for the Derbyshire Sports Awards, sponsored by the University of Derby, where the winner and runner up for each category will be invited to attend a prestigious ceremony at The Roundhouse in Derby on November 12.
