

Newsletter 15

July 2009

Hello everyone!

Here is some news about sport and being active in the High Peak.

St Philip Howard Sports Centre

There will be activities at the sports centre in the summer holidays.

Trampoline Treasure Hunt
Boccia Basketball and more!

Emma can tell you about this

St Philip Howard
CATHOLIC SCHOOL

High Peak Walks for Health

Walkers and guests celebrated their achievements at Hayfield Wells Dressings on July 14th.

Paul can tell you about this.

Paul Evans

Derbyshire Boccia Trials

Vicky Leigh Marsh and Katie Roberts have been selected for the team!

Derbyshire Sports Awards

Don't forget to send in your nominations for the awards

Chris can tell you about this.

High Peak Sharks News

9 swimmers swam more than 20 kilometres in the distance gala on 11th July at New Mills Pool

Alice can tell you about this

HIGH PEAK SHARKS

Festival of Sports

Peak School held a fun morning of sports at New Mills Leisure Centre.

Sports in Derbyshire Dales

You can find out about summer holiday sports for disabled people in Derbyshire Dales on their website:

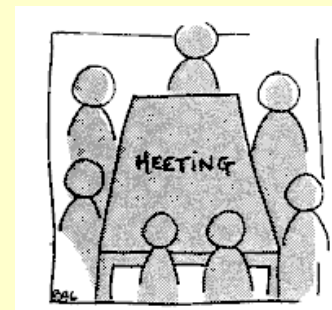

www.derbyshiredales.gov.uk

High Peak Disability Sports Group

The next meeting is on Monday 14th September at 5pm at:
The University of Derby Buxton
Room DO/G05

Alice can tell you about this.

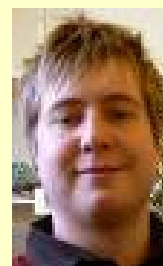

You can ask these people for more information about the news in this newsletter:

Emma Champion
07947 832 413

Alice Wright
07962 020 748

Chris Nightingale
0845 129 7777